A diagram illustrating a dependency between two files. At the bottom is a white box with a black border containing the file path for a C++ source file: `/Users/archanar/Kinematic_factor/adat_devel/lib/hadron/cgc_su2_factory.cc`. A blue arrow points upwards from this box to a gray box with a black border at the top. The gray box contains the file path for a C header file: `/Users/archanar/Kinematic_factor/adat_devel/lib/hadron/cgc_su2_factory.h`. This indicates that the C++ source file depends on the C header file.
